Lunchtime Supervisor

St Barnabas’ Church of England Primary School is a small, successful school situated near to Victoria and Sloane Square tube stations. We are at the heart of a diverse community and we seek to provide our children with a range of opportunities to ensure their success in an ever-changing world.

We are looking for someone who will be responsible for the management and behaviour of children during the lunchtime break in the dining hall, playground and classrooms.

You will be able to:

- promote good behaviour
- promote healthy eating at lunch times
- use your own initiative
- organise games
- work well within a team
- be supportive of the Christian values of the school
- communicate effectively both verbally and in writing to children and adults
- able to understand and follow school policies and complete accident forms
- promote equal opportunities

Recent experience of working with or supporting children in a school setting is desirable and a first aid qualification would be an advantage.

We can offer you:

- Well behaved, polite and happy children
- A well-resourced school in the heart of London
- A school at the centre of the local community, with the opportunity to make a real difference to young people’s lives

Hours required: 12.15pm to 1:30pm term time only

We are committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children, young people and expect all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. This post is subject to an enhanced DBS check.

Application packs are available from the School Office or from our website.

Closing date for applications: Monday 7th January 2019 by noon.

Interviews: Week beginning Monday 7th January 2019

Visits to the school are welcomed – please contact the School Office.
CVs will not be accepted.
Applications through an agency will not be considered. Previous applicants need not apply.
