Madani Schools Federation

Religious Education and Arabic Teacher Vacancy | Madani Girls School

We have an exciting opportunity for an inspiring, motivated and innovative ambitious teacher of Religious Education and Arabic. We are looking for a committed classroom practitioner who will teach across KS3/4 and possess attributes such as a strong desire to succeed, capacity for further professional development, creativity and a commitment to make a positive contribution to ensure that the life chances of our students are maximised.

The vision for our Federation is clear; to deliver sustained world class education and care that enables all learners to acquire excellence, a moral purpose framed on the school's harmonious ethos, and to equip them with the confidence, skills, identity and values to contribute positively to British society and indeed the wider world.

Our latest summer key performance information demonstrates that both of our schools are amongst the very best schools in the city of Leicester with 0.4 and 1.05 respectively. Madani Girls' School, in particular is the best performing school in Leicester, Leicestershire, and the region in terms of progress and attainment and is in the top 40 in the DfE's published table of schools in the country overall.

Our most recent inspections for both the Madani Girls and Madani Boys School were graded as 'Good', with many exemplary and outstanding elements. Every day is a celebration of learning at Madani Schools'. As we continue to strive onwards towards our vision of excellence and world class education, we look forward to meeting highly skilled and talented candidates to join this exciting journey.
