JOB OVERVIEW

Winterbourne Academy are looking to appoint an adaptable, flexible and resourceful Teaching Assistant, to join our dedicated and friendly learning support team, supporting academic progress of those students with additional needs who are identified as disadvantaged.

This is a fixed term post until July 2019 subject to budget review.

JOB REQUIREMENTS:

- Working with a wide range of Teachers to deliver excellent teaching and learning, which enables Students to achieve high standards and make appropriate progress
- Coaching children on a 1:1 or group basis.
- Supporting assessment and evidencing learning
- Working with the Teacher to create learning resources appropriate to the Student that you are supporting
- Be willing to research and learn about supportive technologies that can be used in the classroom
- Maintaining a safe and positive environment for all learners
- Creating opportunities for all learners (e.g. SEN, EAL, GT, all underachieving groups) to reach their potential, irrespective of ability

Applicants will be enthusiastic, self-motivated, have a positive 'can-do' attitude and be prepared to work creatively with Students to positively progress their educational and personal development.

The successful candidate will form positive relationships with Students and their Parents/Carers, to support and gain their trust. They must have relevant experience in a similar role with a proven track record.

WHAT WE OFFER:

- An Academy that is fully dedicated to developing every Student to reach their full potential, irrespective of their ability
- Collaborative working within our shared family of Academies
- Excellent CPD Opportunities
- Onsite parking

- Pension Scheme.

- Employee benefits such as cycle scheme and discounted gym membership

- Fantastic facilities
