LEVEL THREE SEN TEACHING ASSISTANT TO WORK IN THE FOUNDATION STAGE

This ‘outstanding’, over-subscribed, very popular, multi-ethnic, inner city primary school requires a permanent Level Three SEN teaching assistant to work predominantly in the Foundation Stage in the first instance. The candidate will support pupils 1:1 and in small groups. The candidate could be required to work in any year group.

The post holder will also be required to support a pupil with complex medical needs, including (but not limited to) catheter and stoma-care. All necessary training will be provided by qualified health professionals. The post holder will be required to become a paediatric first aider with resuscitation training. A 3-month probationary period is necessary in order to ensure that all training is successfully completed by the applicant.

Post 1: Hours of work: 8.10 a.m. until 3.15 p.m., Mondays to Fridays during term time plus two six hour staff training days.

Scale and salary Grade 6 Point 23 to 26 - £23,866-26,470 pro rata to the post.

Start Date: Monday 20th May 2019

Very friendly and helpful staff, very well behaved pupils, fantastic CPD, committed governors, supportive parents and superb local community.

“The school is at the very heart of the community it serves” (OFSTED report 2012).

Come and work somewhere you will appreciated and valued. Visits welcome, contact the SENDCo on the number above. Apply on-line. Closing date: Friday 5th April, 3.25pm. Interview: Thursday 11th April, 11am.
