Lead Practitioner in English

Required for September 2019
Salary: Lead Practitioner pay scale (Points L3 - L7)

Are you an experienced Lead Practitioner of English or a teacher with outstanding outcomes looking for a new challenge within an exciting, innovative and supportive school? Would you like to be part of a Trust where your skills and expertise can be shared across our family of schools and our Teaching School Alliance? Do you seek a post with amazing opportunities to share your passion for English within an environment where you will be valued and supported?

Join us and you will be part of a developing English department with a strong team ethos. At Ninestiles, we believe in working collaboratively, sharing ideas and supporting each other to achieve joint success. As part of the Summit Learning Trust, we share a collective belief that our students should benefit from a provision and experience that both inspires and develops a new generation of young people that can meet the demands of life in the 21st century. As such, you should be able to teach across the ability range for KS3 and KS4 but also have an unequivocal desire to develop pedagogy and practice both at Ninestiles and across the Trust.

The Summit Learning Trust comprises Ninestiles itself, Lyndon, Cockshut Hill, four primary schools and the Sixth Form College Solihull who joined the Trust in August 2017. The Trust’s commitment to excellence is recognised nationally and internationally. All schools work in partnership with the Ninestiles Teaching School to support staff development, which further extends the scope of opportunities for career advancement in working with other schools.

Why work for us?
The Trust offers:

• Leadership development opportunities
• High quality training and support
• Opportunities to work across a number of schools
• Employee assistance programme
• Employee discount scheme

Closing date: Friday 5th April 2019 at midday. Interviews will be held the week after.

We are an equal opportunities employer and we are determined to ensure that no applicant or employee receives less favourable treatment on the grounds of gender reassignment, age, disability, religion or belief, sex, sexual orientation, marital status, pregnancy/maternity or race.

The school is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of our students and we expect all applicants to share this commitment. All appointments will be subject to an enhanced DBS disclosure, including a Children’s barred list check.

Safeguarding Statement:
Ninestiles School & Academy is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children, young people and vulnerable adults and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment.
