The greatest strength of our school is our students who are often praised for their creativity, musical talents, artistic performances and respect they have for one another. Students generally understand the importance of learning, value their school and are proud to be part of it.

Ninestiles has a very reflective teaching staff body who welcome feedback from parents and students to secure the needs of all learners. The school has a wide and varied curriculum, students have access to an impressive range of sporting and extracurricular activities with well over sixty enrichment opportunities offered after school. There is a strong culture of safeguarding and staff work positively with the leadership team to ensure students are kept safe.

Here at Ninestiles we aim to create opportunities and support achievement for our students and staff alike. Right now, we are seeking a Teaching Assistant who is committed to supporting our high standards of learning and teaching for our students as well as creating a nurturing environment within which everyone can reach their full potential.

Why work for us?
The Trust offers:
