eTeach Recruit London

Early Years Vacancy

London Borough of Barnet

September 2019

Applications from motivated and confident Early Years teachers are required for September 2019

We are looking for dynamic Early Years Teachers who have the ability and drive to enthuse their pupils to give that little bit extra within the classroom!

- Early Years Teachers
- Main or Upper Pay Scale
- Ambitious Four Form Entry Primary School in Barnet
- Less than a 5 minute walk from transportation links
- School is graded 'Good' by OFSTED
- State of the art building with excellent resources/ facilities

An exciting opportunity has arisen for a Early Years Teacher in a brilliant progressive primary school in the London Borough of Barnet.

The school is an established and well liked Primary in London that has a growing reputation due to the strong and successful Leadership Team. Close to a main Line tube station and Bus Hub.

Situated in large grounds, the school benefits from excellent facilities and can boast a gym/ sports hall and small playing fields. Inside the school every class has its own Interactive White Board, and is well resourced.

They are ideally looking for a practitioner who can offer new concepts and a teacher who can stimulate their students. This will be a class of 30 students who come from a variety of backgrounds and speak a number of different languages; it's a lively and energetic class that has matured and cultivated through good, strong directorship of the previous Early Years teacher, and which is now currently achieving the National Standard and above.

This is a great opportunity for a constant professional who can continue the good work already started by the current Key Stage 1 teacher, so if you think you can assist the school in offering an outstanding teaching and learning environment please apply today.
