PLEASE NOTE: We do not accept CV's and applications via jobs boards, to be considered you will need to submit an online application on our website.

Richmond and Hillcroft Adult and Community College provide an impressive environment to support learning. We design and deliver courses to meet the needs, interests and abilities of adults who wish to learn in an adult environment.

We are looking for experienced sessional tutors to teach French language leisure courses from beginners to intermediate levels. This will be up to two evenings a week to start with, with the possibility of daytime assignments in the foreseeable future. There are likely to be 2 - 6 hours per week. The courses are based primarily at our Richmond site.

As a part-time tutor you will be expected to complete the administration associated with these courses. You will also be expected to attend team meetings at least once a term during an academic year. So if you are knowledgeable, dependable and interested in this work and have relevant qualifications and experience, please do apply for this role.

To apply, please complete an online application form via our website by the above stated closing date for your application to be considered.

Interviews are expected to be held Tuesday 4th, Wednesday 5th or Thursday 6th June (in the afternoons).

Richmond and Hillcroft Adult Community College is an equal opportunities employer and is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and adults at risk.

Please note, all posts at the College are subject to the Enhanced Disclosure & Barring Service, with child barred list check. Should the post be involved in regulated activity with vulnerable adults an adult barred list check will also be requested.

Due to the high volumes of applications we receive, we reserve the right to close any adverts before the published closing date once we have received a sufficient number of applications. We advise you to submit your application as early as possible to prevent disappointment.

Safeguarding Statement:

RHACC Richmond and Hillcroft Adult Community College is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children, young people and vulnerable adults and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. We particularly welcome applications from under represented groups including ethnicity, gender, transgender, age, disability, sexual orientation or religion.
