Richmond upon Thames College

Richmond upon Thames College (RuTC) is one of London's most successful Further Education Colleges providing education and training to 16-19 year olds and adults from across Richmond, London and Surrey, for over 80 years. In November 2017, Ofsted judged the college good in all areas and this outcome complements the college's recent results, which were the best in over a decade.

We will be opening a new campus at the beginning of 2020. This exciting and innovative new learning environment will be located within the grounds of the current college site, so remains convenient for public transport links – it is adjacent to the A316 and just a short walk from Twickenham rail station and a number of regular London bus routes.

We are seeking a Law Lecturer to primarily teach A level Law and GCSE Citizenship but an ability to teach BTEC Law or business units would also be an advantage. This is a sessional post in first instance. The working days are likely to be Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday.

Safeguarding Statement:

Richmond upon Thames College is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children, young people and vulnerable adults and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. We particularly welcome applications from under represented groups including ethnicity, gender, transgender, age, disability, sexual orientation or religion.
