JOB OVERVIEW

An exciting opportunity has arisen for a highly competent and well-qualified candidate to join us as a Business and Economics Lecturer within our excellent Business and A-Levels teams.

Ideally, with experience of Level 3 and/or A Level Business Studies and Economics, the successful candidate will be capable of sharing their knowledge with our students in an engaging and informative manner. We would also welcome interest from candidates with experience of Marketing or Business Law.

As a Lecturer, the successful candidate would have access to our generous holiday and pension schemes alongside the possibility of career development opportunities.
