eTeach Recruit London

Early Years Teacher
London Borough of Brent
January 2020
NQT's welcome

A Fantastic primary school based in the London Borough of Brent are looking to recruit a passionate, committed and ambitious Early Years class teacher for January 2020. This role is ideal for someone with experience of leading KS1 however for a strong NQT there would be appropriate support for you to succeed.

- Early Years Teacher
- Harrow
- 'Good' by OFSTED with 'Outstanding' Teachers
- 3 form entry
- Support available for an NQT

The Head teacher of this lovely school is looking to recruit a class teacher who has the determination to help children achieve. She is looking for someone who is 'Good/Outstanding' through their observations and references and has an established track record of accomplishing outstanding results. You will join the Early years team from January and take on a lovely class of 30 children. For a suitably experienced class teacher there will be a TLR available.

The Head teacher is an enthusiastic individual who makes a real difference to children's future outcomes. The school is situated in a heavily diverse area full of different cultures and the school takes great pride in celebrating this. Many children speak English as an additional language at home however many of the children are fluent in English.

The school's most recent OFSTED was 'Good' with 'Outstanding' teachers and they have made significant progress over the last few years to ensure that standards are exceptionally high.

As an Early years teacher you will be responsible for guiding students along their way making learning fun, appealing and exciting. You will need a strong passion for delivering high standards and high expectations.
