Malmesbury School

We are looking to recruit an outstanding teacher to work as a Trust Lead Practitioner for Mathematics.

Your support to our leaders and teachers will be vital in ensuring that all our schools achieve the same successes. Joining a school improvement team led by the CEO, you will use your passion, subject knowledge and expertise in Mathematics to drive forward the quality of teaching and learning. This is an exciting role that requires flexibility, a team spirit, and a willingness to learn and it will suit individuals who want to take a step-up and work at a more strategic level in Mathematics across a range of schools.

The successful candidate will:

- be an outstanding teacher with a proven track record of securing sustained excellent outcomes
- have up-to-date knowledge of subject curricula and assessment requirements
- be proficient in teaching Mathematics, preferably to A Level
- have proven experience of identifying and implementing effective strategies for improving attainment in Mathematics in challenging schools at KS3 and KS4
- have a highly effective style that is both consultative and influential
- be able to demonstrate resilience, motivation and commitment to driving up standards of achievement
- be able to work across a group of schools and show significant impact in developing capacity and improving outcomes for young people

The Athelstan Trust is a Multi-Academy Trust formed in 2015 currently consisting of three secondary Schools (Malmesbury School, Bradon Forest School and The Dean Academy) in Wiltshire and Gloucestershire with another approved to join in April 2020. All our schools share a deep commitment to delivering an excellent comprehensive education to all the students in the Trust.

Closing Date: 12 noon on 3rd February 2020

Interviews on 12th February 2020 at Bradon Forest School, Purton, Wiltshire.

Applicants are invited to send an application form together with a letter of application, no more than two sides of A4, outlining how your skills and experience make you a suitable candidate for this post. An application pack is available on the Athelstan Trust's website on the vacancies page.
