Do you have experience of working in a pastoral role?

Do you have a passion to ensure pupils are supported and encouraged to achieve their full potential?

Can you develop positive relationships with our students, families and external agencies?

If so, this could be the perfect opportunity for you!

An exciting opportunity has arisen for someone to join The Roundhill Academy as Head of Year on a permanent basis. The Head of Year is responsible for all aspects of pastoral care for a year group and lead in the initiatives to identify any barriers to learning.

The post holder will be required to work with students and families to raise attendance, understand trends in behaviour and implement strategies to deal with behaviour. The successful candidate will be required to undertake First Aid training.

This role is a rewarding one with a successful candidate having the opportunity to take responsibility to encourage, guide and support student wellbeing and academic achievement at the school, ensuring students achieve to the best of their ability.

The ideal candidate will:

- Have excellent communication and interpersonal skills
- Have the ability to develop positive relationships with students, parents, carers and external agencies
- Have the ability to prioritise and have a proactive and flexible approach
- Be a team player
- Have experience of pastoral support in a school setting
- Work well under pressure
- Be resilient

In return we offer:

- Opportunity to work within a supportive team
- Opportunities for career development with access to apprenticeship and training schemes
- Generous annual leave entitlements
- Access to the generous Local Government Pension Scheme (24% contribution by the employer)
- Employee Support Service (counselling) for employees and close family members (24/7 support)
- Employee Discount and Benefit Scheme
- Opportunity for an annual flu vaccination
