Your profile

The role and candidate profile for this role is detailed in the attached job description and person specification.

Successful Aiglon staff are enthusiastic, experienced, committed, reflective, dynamic and willing to try new ideas. If you share these values and have an appetite for challenge and an ambition to make a positive impact on our world, we welcome your application.

About us

Located in Chesières (Vaud, Switzerland), Aiglon College is a not-for-profit, international boarding school offering a distinctive, world-class education in a stunning alpine setting.

The school was founded on a distinctive ethos: the balanced development of mind, body and spirit. This philosophy underpins everything we do at Aiglon, both inside and outside the classroom.

There are over 480 students, representing more than 70 nationalities, following the International GCSE (IGCSE) and International Baccalaureate Diploma (IB Diploma) programmes.

What we offer

Aiglon is dedicated to the well-being and professional development of all staff, within a vibrant, friendly, and modern workplace. Beyond competitive salaries and comprehensive social security benefits, we provide free accident and loss of salary insurances, generous pension and leave entitlements, as well as a range of special perks and advantages.

How to apply

Deadline for applications: 6th April 2025.

Early applications are encouraged. Please apply through our School platform (eteach) following the instructions; applications sent by standard email will not be considered.

You can find information on how the School processes your personal data within the School's Privacy Notice.

Safeguarding Statement:

Aiglon is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of our students. Applicants will therefore need to undergo child protection screening appropriate to the post.

"By submitting this application, I confirm that I am not currently disqualified from working with children and if I have been disqualified from working with children in the past I will undertake to discuss full details in writing."
