Brimble Hill School

Brimble Hill School

Brimble Hill School is a primary Education Provision (EP) for children and young people (CYP) with severe or profound and multiple learning difficulties (PMLD). We are a supportive and caring community for pupils, aged 2 -11 and have been rated Good by Ofsted (2023).

Brimble Hill School are in search of an Assistant Headteacher to join the team until the end of the academic year.

As the Assistant Headteacher, you will support the Headteacher in managing the day-to-day operations of the Education Provision (EP) and have a good grasp of the essentials of running a successful specialist EP: teaching and learning; curriculum design and staff development. This requires a hands-on approach. At the same time you will support the Headteacher in raising the profile of the organisation and be able to communicate effectively with funders and other stakeholders.

Brimble Hill School is proud to be part of Brunel Academies Trust - a growing educational community with no barriers, only potential. We strive to significantly improve the life chances and outcomes for our CYP within our SEND, CofE and mainstream EPs.

Please see the attached the job description and person specification for further information about this role.

Interview: 16.06.2025 or as received

In the first instance we would welcome your application via SAM People Recruit. However, if you are unable to complete the application on this platform, please contact the team using resourcingswindon@brunel.org.uk or 0 1793 268820 and we will be able to issue a Word version of the application form for completion and return by the deadline. Unfortunately, in line with Safer Recruitment, we are unable to accept CVs.

Note: Applicants will be considered as received. Should a suitable candidate be identified, we may close the vacancy early.

Safeguarding Statement:

Brunel Academies Trust is committed to Safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people (CYP) and expect all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. Appointment is subject to a Disclosure and Barring Service check, references and medical clearance. All references will be obtained prior to interview in line with Safer Recruitment and KCSIE, and further references may be sought as deemed necessary.

Brunel Academies Trust is dedicated to the vision of having a diverse workforce and is committed to building a team that reflects diversity from the communities it serves. We value the contributions of all colleagues from a wide range of backgrounds and actively seek to promote an environment which is free from discrimination and harassment; which at the same time supports fair promotion and cultural acceptance.

Under the provision of the Equality Act 2010, Brunel Academies Trust welcomes applications from everyone and operates a recruitment process that is fair and does not discriminate against or disadvantage anyone because of their age, pronouns preference, disability, gender reassignment status, marriage or civil partnership status, pregnancy, paternity or maternity, race or nationality, religion or belief, sex or sexual orientation.

In order for your application to be formally considered, we require a fully completed application form in line with Keeping Children Safe in Education & Safer Recruitment. This must include your education history, qualifications with dates and an unbroken employment history from leaving full time education to present day (with gaps accounted for). Please make sure all gaps in employment are explained in the box provided.
