Are you looking for a fantastic opportunity to work at our amazing school?

Our aim is to provide an exceptional education and experience for all our learners, and we are looking to appoint a creative and highly motivated teacher to join us.

We can offer:

- a positive ethos underpinned by shared values
- a caring, dedicated and forward-looking team
- enthusiastic, eager children who enjoy their learning
- supportive parents and governing body
- commitment to professional development

We are seeking to appoint a colleague who has:

- a creative approach to inspiring pupils and developing their own practice
- high expectations of what children and St Stephen's can achieve
- ability to work collaboratively with colleagues
- a willingness to participate fully in the life of our school
- the personal skills and confidence to add to our friendly team and form positive relationships with parents and other members of our school community

Application forms should be sent to the school office by post or email FAO Claire Taylor

Closing date: Friday 4th July 2025 at midday

Interview date: Week Commencing Monday 7th July 2025
